Tips for Parents:

- Encourage your child to act out parts of a story using stuffed animals, action figures, puppets, or even simple household items.
- This hands-on approach helps children understand the plot, remember story details, connect emotionally with characters, build vocabulary, and express creativity, making reading time more engaging and supporting kindergarten readiness.

Book to Read this Month:

"Hope Is a Hop"
by Katrina Moore and Melissa Iwai

"Play is the highest expression of human development in childhood for it alone is the free expression of what is in a child's soul." - Fredrich Froebel

"April Showers"

(Tune: "Are You Sleeping?")

April showers,

April showers,

Falling down,

falling down.

Pitter-patter raindrops,

Pitter-patter raindrops,

On the ground,

on the ground.

"Spring is in the Air"

(Tune: "The Wheels on the Bus")

The flowers in the ground go bloom, bloom, bloom (x3)

The flowers in the ground go
bloom, bloom, bloom,

All through the spring!

The birds in the sky go tweet, tweet, tweet (x3)

The bees on the flowers go buzz, buzz, buzz (x3)

"Little Seeds"

(Tune: "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star")

Little seeds so small and round,

Lie so still beneath the ground.

Rain will fall and sun will glow,

Then the seeds begin to grow.

Sprouting leaves and blooming bright,

Growing tall in warm spring light.
